City Lights shine on Festa

Will oversee business and finance operations

Staff report

May 8, 2008

Lou Festa has joined City Lights Media Group as CFO, reporting to CEO Danny Fisher and overseeing the company's business and finance operations for its growing slate of TV and indie film projects.

Festa joins City Lights from FremantleMedia North America, where he was CFO since 1998.

City's recent releases include "Harold" with Nikki Blonsky and is in development for "Interrupted," about the death of "Rebel Without A Cause" writer-director Nicholas Ray.
